EIParacaidista.com: the newcomer's guide

What is it? An online monthly publication targeting Hispanic immigrants in the United States, with emphasis in South Florida, which offers orientation information useful for Spanish-speaking newcomers and long time residents. It presents application procedures for a vast array of situations, services available for the community (government and private sectors), active legislations, etc. It's a complete guide on "how to do" things, and a sort of X ray of the life's system in South Florida (and the United States in general) to help Hispanics face their settling process successfully, and their day to day matters while they progress. Its housing-transportation, education, immigration, health, work-money, citizen power, offer original contents with deep journalistic research, and these are written with an entertaining easy-to-read style that makes them effortless to understand for readers of all ages and educational levels.

Mission: To guide and expedite the adaptation process of anyone who wishes to make of South Florida and the United States in general a permanent or temporary place of residence and to attain this goal with success. Also, it aims to facilitate the progress of permanent residents of the area.

EIParacaidista.com has a rich archive of articles that accumulate through time. These articles are updated constantly to offer useful and adequate information, and have become a truthful library of resources of the highest editorial quality.

EI Paracaidista was also a printed publication from 2001 to 2012 when it became 100 % online.
